the stable in the rear of the residence of Mr. M. Adams, at Ninth and Everett streets, and set fire to the roof. The damage will be covered by about $150. The fire department, in charge of Chief Brooks, was on the scene in four minutes and the burning was turned in and extinguished.

Fireman Walter Smith had two streams a full operation. The department had to make a run of seven blocks.

No one was injured by the flash. There were men in the stable, three cows and two horses. All of them were taken out without injury.

Prompt work by the department prevented what might have been a disastrous spread of the flames and many words of commendation were given them.

NO CARS YET.

No effort has yet been made to run street cars in Manchester, nor will there be any until the question in Richmond is solved. No disorders have arisen here it is probable that there will be any, as all interest centers in Richmond. The police are ready for any emergency that may arise.

The streets were crowded yesterday evening and last night with people whose general topic of conversation was the strike and its probable outcome. Much business was done at the stores, owing to the fact that most of the purchasers had to do all their shopping at home.

NARROW ESCAPE.

The police are on the lookout for the person who fired at a moving freight train on the Con. Line, near Clopton,

In the car that was strue were Messrs. W. T. Stone and W. B. Wells, two well-known painters, of Manchester, who narrowly escaped being hit. They were on their way to Petersburg to do some work. They took a passenger train yesterday for Petersburg and wired to police authorities to look over the supplies.

TAXES NOW DUE.

Treasurer Brownagh is busy receiving school and sewer taxes for the year 1902. One-half of such taxes is due before July 1st, and the other on December 31st. Five per cent. is added to the tax if it is not paid at the time due.

FUNERAL OF MR. THACKER.

The body of Mr. James Lewis Thacker will be taken to Ruthen Glen to-day for burial.

Mr. Thacker died at his home, No. 217 West Eighth Street, yesterday morning at 7:40 o'clock, after an illness of typhoid fever. He came here from Caroline county three years ago. He leaves his wife and one child.

Mr. Thacker was employed at the Southern shops.

A SHOCK

Must Be Avoided If Possible.

Shock to the mind brings some most heinous conditions to body and nerves. When it is that food, powerful food, can do nothing for a man of Covington, O., says: "One day my husband while about the house dropped dead without moan or groan or warning of any kind. I was so shocked that I could not find him lifeless. The shock and the terrible anguish that followed were so great that in a week's time I had lost my appetite. I was so weak that I could scarcely survive. I was so weak that I felt and staggered about with no strength or will power to do anything. I was so weak that I could not walk a little, but not enough to make life worth the living. One day I read about a poor skinny little baby being rescued from a poor mother who had starved him to death."

Has Gone North.

The Hon. W. Bassett has gone north for the summer. she will spend the time at Chicago and the lake resorts in Michigan.

EVERY SUNDAY

The first box of Grape-Nuts and (the) more from the second, and after using the third package I had strength and energy enough to go to house cleaning, something I had never expected to be able to do again.

My improvement continued steadily nd I am still gaining flesh and strength." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

A lady famous for her dainty desserts explains that she learned them from the little recipe book she found in the package of Grape-Nuts.

Mrs. Melvin Starke, of Highland Park, was summoned to Norfolk this week on account of the death of one of the members of her family.

Master George Woodall, of Church Hill, is the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. J. R. Satterwhite, of Fourth Avenue and Chestnut Street.
